From the Editor's Desk

My apologies for the lateness of this edition. I have been working on the program booklet for the upcoming PNR 2024 Convention and I'm afraid that took rather more time than I had thought. You will also notice that this is a rather slim edition. I don't apologize for that; if I had the content I would print it. This issue a promised article failed to appear, and I didn't have the time to write something myself to replace it.

As I write this, the PNR Convention is getting very close and is looking in great shape. If you live in the lower mainland, or have accommodations there you can use, and can possibly spare the time you should by all means participate. Check out the promotional articles included here. It will be a great meet and will be well worth your time and money to attend.

If you know of any events not listed in the Time Table, even small local meets run by your club, or if you are thinking about maybe providing your fellow 7th Division members with an article on something important to you, or if you just have some photos or some news or information that should be in the next edition, please send me an email at bbeditor@7divpnr.ca.

Enjoy the issue!

Superintendent's Message

By Victor Gilbert, 7th Division Superintendent

To all our new members: Welcome.

To all our members: Thank you for your support and your time. This is your organization, and we need you.

IT'S CONVENTION TIME!

The Surrey Excursion – PNR Convention 2024

RMMBC for 2024 will be the “Surrey Excursion,” the PNR 2024 Annual Convention and an NMRA member-only event. Start a project so it can be displayed at the PNR Convention in May 2024. For those involved in the Achievement Program, there will be AP Judging at the convention.

We can use your help. If you want to assist, please contact Lori Sebelley, PNR2024Chair@outlook.com.

Do not forget this is YOUR event. We need your help to make it happen.

The Pacific Northwest Region of the National Model Railroad Association will hold its annual convention on May 22nd. Have you signed up? This is your chance to talk to the regional board and express your thoughts.

The 7th Division has put together the convention, and I think it will be a good one. There are three days of clinics, layout open houses, and several days of operations sessions, not to mention a prototype tour of the Vancouver G3 facility.

There will also be the banquet on Saturday night. Yes, I know it is pricey. Rest assured your board worked with the convention committee to keep the price as low as possible. While we wanted the price to be lower, there is no way for it to cost any less. The hotel sets the price, and we can only pass it along. The Division does not make anything on the banquet.

Remember, this is a members-only event, and you will need your NMRA membership number to register. If you are a new member and want to attend the convention but have not received your membership number yet, please contact the organizing committee chair, Lori Sebelley, at PNR2024Chair@outlook.com. Please include a copy of your sign-up receipt, and Lori will advise you on the steps to register.

I look forward to seeing all of you there.

The convention will be held in Surrey, BC, at the Sheraton Guildford Hotel. The organizing committee is made up of most of the RMMBC organizing committee, so the event will be as good as we have come to expect. The event will take place from May 22nd through the 26th, 2024.

RMMBC will be back in its original form in 2025.

7th Division Website

Work continues on the 7th Division website (slowly). If you have the desire to volunteer and have web design skills, we are looking for a web admin for the 7th Division.

The login process to the Members Only section has changed. You will now need your NMRA member number to login. Passwords could not be copied from the old access. To get your new password, click on the “Forgot Password” link, and a temporary password will be sent to the email address we have on file for you. If you do not receive a temporary password shortly after it has been requested, check your Junk Mail and Spam folders. If you still have no password, please get in touch with webmaster@7divpnr.ca.

Vancouver Train Expo 2024 Update

by Tom Lundgren, Leader, Vancouver Train Expo

My update in the January/February edition of the Bulletin Board provided a summary of Vancouver Train Expo 2023. As you will recall, I reported that low attendance had impacted the financial outcome. It turns out the 2023 event lost $1,412 after paying exhibitor travel expenses and honoraria. The British Columbia Society of Model Engineers graciously donated $1,500 from the proceeds of the mini rail train rides to offset the loss. As a result we start 2024 with the same amount of working capital. This is, with the addition of pre-event booth and table rentals, sufficient to fund approximately 85 percent of the event's upfront costs.

Planning for Vancouver Train Expo 2024 at the PNE Forum, November 2nd and 3rd (load in on the 1st) has started. An initial canvas of suppliers suggests that we do not face significant price increases.

The next step is to canvas exhibitors and vendors. In my previous update I mentioned that the number of small exhibits had shrunk and the demand for booth space declined. We could have accommodated an additional good sized layout exhibit and had underutilized booth space. Hence, the response to this initial canvas of exhibitors and vendors will be a key determinant in the deciding the viability of this year's event.

The Organizing Committee remains intact, although the demands of everyday life are impacting the time some members have available to devote to the event. This lost capacity will need to be replaced somehow. In particular, back up volunteers are needed for each of committee positions and additional promotional capacity is required. If you are interested and have time to assist please contact me at: chairman@vancouvertrainexpo.ca.

The plan is to collect the information needed to make a decision on Vancouver Train Expo 2024 sometime in May. While this may seem early, the timing is driven by the need to secure the venue, which in turn triggers the payment of non-refundable deposits.

Thanks to you for supporting the hobby!

WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO GET YOU EXCITED?

by John Martin, PNR 2024 Convention Publicity

One of the most over-used words in advertising is “exciting”. We’ve all seen beautifully phrased announcements that say something like: “The government is excited to be introducing an exciting new tax increase that is guaranteed to get you excited”. You might also have heard a slightly off-colour joke that begins much the same way (ask me sometime).

With that in mind, we very warily raise our heads above our foxhole and say that we are, indeed, very excited about the 2024 PNR Convention.

You may or may not know that staging a convention is a risky proposition. During the depths of COVID-19, we had to begin booking a hotel to host the event. Commitments for floor space and a block of rooms were made, as well as arrangements for the traditional banquet. Poor attendance could result in a significant financial hit for the 7th Division and your committee has had a few anxious years, waiting to see if we could put together a sufficiently attractive event to bring in the desired audience numbers.

Over 50 clinics needed to be organized, operating sessions and layout open houses arranged, a display room prepared, exhibits solicited, a prototype tour booked, and on and on.

We are pleased to report that over 170 “full-fare” NMRA members have registered to attend, as well as 32 “non-rail” guests who participate in a program for those who have decided to accompany their significant other but have yet to fall in love with model trains. We even have four youth registrants – hopefully they are future 7th Division members.

You can see much more on our website at PNR2024.7divpnr.ca.

The site includes a full schedule of events, clinic titles and times, tour info, and even a list of your fellow 7th Division folks who did all the hard work putting the convention together. They deserve an enormous vote of thanks. (see Convention Information – Contact Us).

We hope you’ve decided to attend. Actually, there is still time to register – if you act soon.

For those who’ve already signed up, we know you’re going to enjoy yourselves.

In fact, we’re rather excited about it.

Our Candlelight Dinner

by Bill Van Horne

My dinner companion was lovely and the meal in front of us was delightful. She had the lemon & herb roasted free range chicken breast and I was enjoying the braised beef “caldareta”. We had both complimented our main entrees with roasted and steamed veggies and baby potatoes and everything tasted delicious. An assortment of gorgeous desserts awaited us, and in a few moments the always entertaining Paul Clegg would begin his talk – highlighting his 37 years with Canadian Pacific and his reflections and anecdotes from a time of massive three decades long restructuring.

When my companion whispered into my ear and suggested we skip dessert and slip away to our room for some alone time, I looked deeply into her beautifully hypnotic eyes and enthusiastically nodded “YES”.

And in that instant, it suddenly hit me like a runaway freight train. I realized beyond any doubt in my mind that this was all a dream.

I knew perfectly well that no model railroader worth his/her salt would ever pass up even a minute of the convention program for a personal dalliance. It was obvious this couldn’t be real. No – it’ll always be “convention first” for me and I stayed riveted in my seat where I belonged!

If you’d like to enjoy this same menu and atmosphere, there is still time to register for Surrey Excursion 2024. I guarantee it’ll be a lot of fun – and Paul Clegg’s after-dinner talk will be the icing on the cake.

So long for now – and please excuse me. I’ve been told that I very badly need to start working on building up brownie points around here. I wonder if just maybe I should have gone with her to our room instead.....???

SNEAK PREVIEW – Brand New Feature Film Documentary

by John Martin, PNR 2024 Convention Publicity

If you've decided to attend the 2024 PNR Convention, you can be one of the first to see "The Last Stop – Canada's Lost Locomotive", a brand-new major documentary feature film. (88 minutes)

This is a "Sneak Preview" and a rare opportunity to catch the picture before it gets wider distribution. As a bonus, staff will be available after the show for a Q & A session.

One showing only – 8 PM on Friday, May 24th, 2024

See the trailer at: <https://vimeo.com/499453389>.

In 1947, a dangerous shipping incident saw an entire train slip to the depths of Slocan Lake. Seventy-five years later, a diver and his team set out to locate and extract this historic steam locomotive, aided by one of the wreck's living survivors, a 99-year-old brakeman who was on the train that fateful day. Battling the elements in one of Canada's deepest lakes, with depths of up to 1000 ft, the gruelling expedition tested even the hardest members of the team. But as the search went on, they stumbled upon a more intimate discovery surrounding the townsfolk who call these remote mountains in British Columbia home.
